Department	Heart of the City (c/o Chamberlain's)
Grade & Level	D Level:
Trent Position Number	77EO262/001

About Heart of the City

Heart of the City is an independent charity which is housed by and supported by the City of London Corporation. The team is employed by the Corporation and seconded to the charity.

Heart of the City works with businesses to help to develop responsible business programmes which can range from supporting their local community, to reducing their environmental impact or tackling diversity and wellbeing in the workplace.

Heart of the City runs a well-regarded foundation programme and has 150 member companies across London. It delivers its programme with the support of a powerful network of 'contributor' companies who share their expertise and resource to help member companies get started in responsible business.

Purpose of Post

This role will lead on the engagement of our key stakeholders, including individuals with responsible business experience (our "ambassadors") and new partners in our priority geographical areas. The postholder will nurture our powerful network of ambassadors, securing their support with delivery of our flagship foundation programme which encourages small to medium sized businesses (SMEs) to develop responsible business programmes of their own.

Working closely with the membership team, this postholder will identify best practice in responsible business and develop and manage programme offerings. This postholder will also support the start-up of Heart of the City's work in any new geographical areas, including a one-day training course.

This is a role suited to someone with excellent corporate relationship management experience combined with strong project management skills.

Main Duties & Responsibilities

Ambassador engagement

- Responsible for overseeing the Heart of the City network of ambassadors, consisting of responsible business practitioners from across London who have volunteered to share their time, experience and resources to support Heart of the City members
- Building strong relationships with ambassadors and persuading them to lead and deliver regular activities in support of Heart of the City, for example through delivering workshops, hosting and facilitating special interest groups, sharing resources or speaking at events
- Recruiting new ambassadors as and when required, in particular in desired areas of expertise, new geographical locations or in new industries
- Lead on designing and implementing engagement methods with ambassadors, for example through communications, special events and awards

Develop and manage programme offerings

- Lead and facilitate the mentoring programme for Heart of the City members, including sourcing mentors and overseeing the matching exercise
- Coordinate and lead on the surgery-style sessions offered to members, including sourcing the venue and advisors and preparing the event briefing
- Chair quarterly meetings with our Board Advisory Panel (BAP) consisting of sector leaders, including setting the agendas and drafting minutes
- Liaise with and advise external stakeholders (public and private and voluntary sectors) in any new geographical areas on Heart of the City's responsible business work in order to support the expansion and delivery of its programmes
- Establish and maintain excellent relationships with key stakeholders in the target locations
- Work with the Membership Team to ensure that the new pilots, including the one-day training course, complement the core membership programmes of Heart of the City

Profile

- Attend and speak at industry events to build Heart of the City's profile and meet prospective ambassadors or partners
- Keep abreast of best practice and market trends

Internal

- Gather accurate data and maintain up-to-date database records on contacts
- Produce reports, data, presentations and briefings for trustees, funders, senior business leaders, Government and other stakeholders on Heart of the City's new pilots and related matters to support the Director

Other

- To be available to work outside of normal working hours in order to attend events, to cultivate member businesses.
- To attend several external meetings per day, in order to develop an external network of contacts and to gather insight into current membership trends, practices and future planning.
- To undertake any other duties and responsibilities commensurate with the grade and responsibilities of this post, and as directed from time to time by the Director and Head of Membership.

- To implement the City of London's occupational health and safety policy in relation to the duties of the post, and at all times give due regard to the health and safety of both themselves and others when carrying out their duties.
- To implement the City of London's equal opportunities policy and its objective to promote equality of opportunity in relation to the duties of their post.
- To contribute to a positive and supportive team dynamic.
